PRESS RELEASE

Personnel changes in Podravka's management

Mr. Dalibor Šijak will join Podravka's management team in the position of General Manager for International Markets. Mr. Šijak has extensive work experience in international markets gained during his long career. He came to the new position in Podravka from Atlantic Group, where he worked for six years, and prior to that he worked for Adris Group (2012-2015) and for Podravka (1999-2012) in the position of the Director of Podravka Poland and the Director for Central and Eastern Europe.

Mr. Danijel Kocijan, an experienced staff member of Podravka's management, having worked nearly 20 years in the sales and marketing in Croatia, Serbia, Montenegro and Poland, is now taking on a new duty of coordination and management of Southeast European Markets. Mr. Kocijan has extensive experience in managing international markets at various stages of development and has significantly contributed to the development and sales of Podravka's product portfolio.

Mrs. Sanja Garaj Miloš, the current Marketing Director of the Culinary Business Program, has been appointed Director of the Corporate Marketing and Communications Sector. With her extensive experience in the field of marketing and brand management and many years of work in the food-processing industry, she will significantly contribute to the realization of the company's results and strategy.

The current director of the Corporate Marketing and Communications sector, Tomislav Maričević, has decided to leave Podravka and continue his professional career in another industry.

All these changes in Podravka's management staff will take effect on January 17, 2022.

Respectfully,
